Lockdown Achievers

What have you done this week to make you feel proud?

Week ending 29th January 2021

Portwrinkle

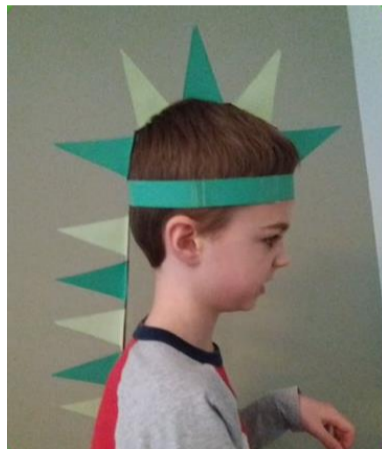

T, for being a super mathematician using the part whole method during his 'marshmallow maths' activity.

Polzeath

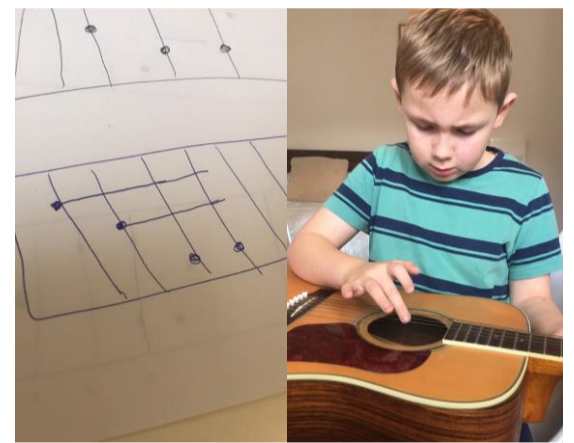

For his fantastic home learning this week! For being a super scientist and managing to pick up an ice cube using just salt and thread!

Kingsand

For working so hard at home this week in all subjects. And for creating this fantastic Dino Spikes headress.

Sennen

J has applied himself to every single aspect of remote learning. He's in every meeting and always so cheery. He responds to marking and here he is enjoying creating music following his own notation.

Mousehole

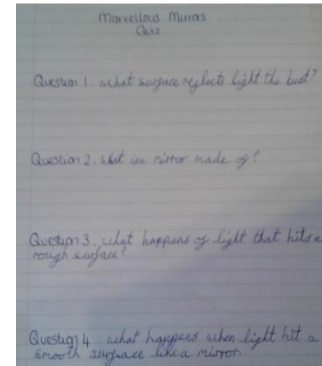

C, for his excellent engagement in his home learning. Here is a photo of his fantastic cave painting art that he has done at home.

Constantine

For his amazing English video on 'How to make a sandwich' – it really made us smile!

Whitsand

L, for producing a challenging Marvellous Mirrors quiz (complete with answers) for her classmates to try.

Looe

For an amazing newspaper report. This is a fantastic piece of learning, completed at home this week, parenthesis, fact and opinion, fronted adverbials and some brilliant quotes!

Cawsand

Cawsand have been looking at ways to make our world a better place. R, has created this wonderful looking poster which shows a clear message.

Seaton

This week we have been writing our newspaper reports about an alien invasion at Brunel. This particular one has blown me away. Not only has A put in so much effort, but he has also listened to all the feedback and advice given.
