Achievers

What have you done today to make you feel proud?

Week ending 8th April 2022

Portwrinkle

All of the children in Portwrinkle are achievers this week. They have learnt so many new words during their Talk through stories sessions. Ask them to explain what they mean.

H has worked amazingly well this week in all lessons, especially when writing a recount in English. H has tried so hard to present his work neatly and has been a real Change It Charlie – Well Done!

For trying extremely hard in his swimming this week and being a 'Have a go, Harry'

L has been determined to gain his pen license. He always works so hard across the curriculum, he's a real 'Have a go Harry.' Well done!

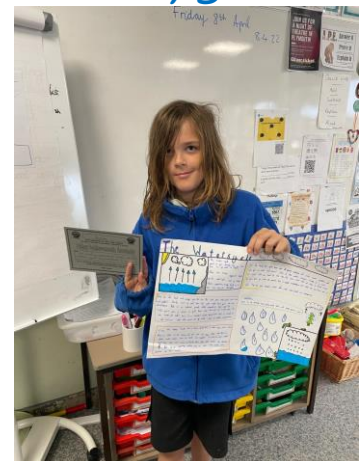

Whitsand

Constantine

Finnygook

N demonstrates consistently good effort in all he does recently. He is a real 'Have a Go Harry'; approaching everything with enthusiasm. Well done!

R has had a great week in Constantine, particularly working hard on his story about a mythical creature living in the Tamar. He is a good example of a 'Have a Go, Harry'.

E has really enjoyed learning about the water cycle and applied all his knowledge to writing a fantastic explanation text! Loads of extra details and some great editing, too!

For amazing progress in the 99 club. O has gone from 44 club in September to now working on 99 club in the space of 2 terms, amazing Oliver well done, what an achievement! Also this week, despite his reservations on Monday, O has literally thrown himself into his swimming lessons, making some excellent progress Well done O, a great week!

For being our Year 6 go to Tommy teamwork. Whenever we need someone to 'step up', Mrs P is there. Whenever we need someone to rely on, Mrs P is there. It will take a while to adjust to Mrs P not being there. Thank you for everything and good luck. Mr K and Mrs McN

For being a one-woman learning gang. Mrs P finds things out. Has all the creative ideas. She's always ready to have-a-go. When things change, she is there. She keeps on trying and it has been wonderful being in a team with Mrs P. Thank you – Miss B and Mrs H.
