Achievers

What have you done today to make you feel proud?

Week ending 4th November 2022

Portwrinkle

M is Portwrinkle's achiever this week. Her group have been learning about Fred fingers for spelling. M has been a great Have a go Harry and is spelling words. Well done!

Downderry

P is Downderry's achiever this week. She demonstrates a real love for learning every day. She has been a 'Keep Trying Kirsten' when writing addition number sentences for fact families – Well done!!

Kingsand

For her excellent learning across all subjects this week, but especially during our English and Maths lessons. L could recall and follow a text map during English and found fact families in Maths.

Mousehole

For her excellent demonstration of various gymnastic symmetrical balances. E showed great body tension and skill in PE this week. Consequently, she was able to show her peers how different balances should look. Well done and thank you for being a great model for others.

Whitsand

D. is in Achievers because she wrote a fantastic Pompeii diary. She used past, present and future tense, lots of emotive language and tried out many different elements of figurative language. She used historical facts and really impressed on the reader the tragedy of AD79.

Talland

I. has been a great example of a 'Keep Trying Kirsten'. She has advanced two 99 club levels in 6 consecutive weeks. Wow, well done and keep up the practising!

Looe

For consistently producing some wonderful pieces of writing. Whether it be a poem, a narrative or some descriptive writing Z strives and often succeeds in meeting all the success criteria and his use of tier 2 vocabulary is second to none. Well done Z.

Pendower

For her efforts in learning her tables. This has meant she has made fine progress in '99 Club' and it has also helped her greatly when tackling division this week. A real Keep trying Kirsten, Well done; Mrs MCN.

Seaton

For fantastic hard work all week. P has been full of enthusiasm and ideas. Especially in his English lessons when coming up with excellent vocabulary for his description of a Victorian workhouse.
