Achievers

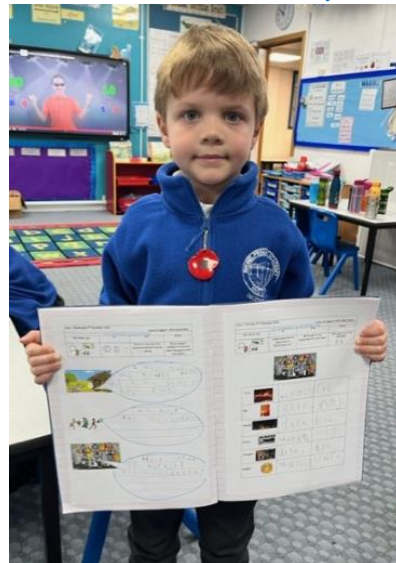

What have you done today to make you feel proud?

Week ending 11th November 2022

Portwrinkle

Downderry

Kingsand

L is Portwrinkle's achiever this week. Mrs James tells me that he is a great Issy Ideas when she is doing Talk Through Stories with the class. He must be a great listener too. Well done L!

T has been chosen as our achiever of the week. T thought of some excellent adjectives to describe the Great Fire of London and put these into sentences. Well done, T – keep it up!

I is Kingsand's Achiever of the week. She has been a 'Keep trying Kirsten' with amazing efforts over the last 3 weeks during '99 Club'. She has managed to achieve '66 Club' in only 3 weeks – Well done!!

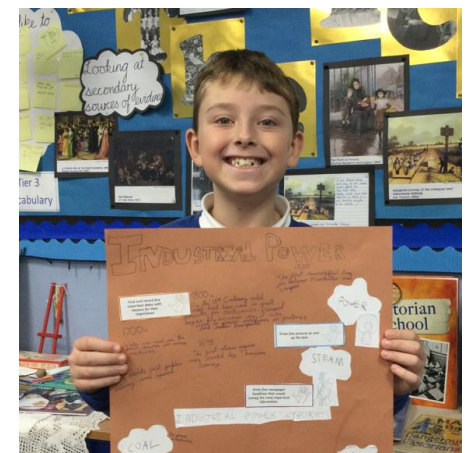

Mousehole

Whitsand

Talland

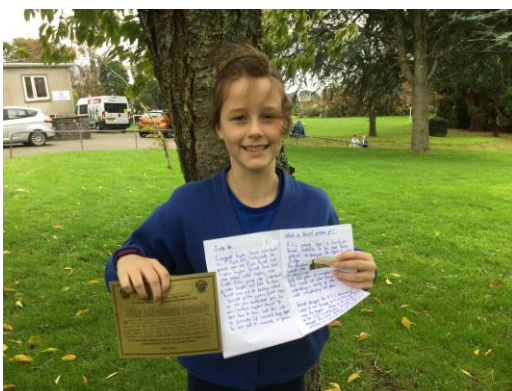

For his improved attitude to learning. V has been trying his best across the curriculum and as a result is creating some very pleasing work. We are thrilled at his new-found enthusiasm to read and work at home too! Keep it up! Well done.

P is our Achiever this week. His personification poem about a volcano is full of amazing vocabulary, onomatopoeia, exciting verbs and expanded noun phrases! He is quite rightly very proud of it!

H has worked phenomenally in a group this week: he's been a great example of a 'Tommy Teamwork'. Moreover, whilst learning dance moves to represent Victorian times he has wowed us with his acting!

Looe

Pendower

Seaton

For her consistently well-presented work in all areas of the curriculum. D takes pride in the appearance of her learning and thinks carefully about the layout of her work. She has also been a maths whizz over recent weeks too. Well done D, what a star!

For their excellent efforts during maths, these two young men have been a great example of Tommy Teamwork. It has been a pleasure to watch them working together on their division skills.

For his fantastic sentences and vocabulary in English. N has used ambitious language and a variety of sentences to describe the Victorian Workhouse. In maths he has been a division superstar!
