

Achievers

What have you done today to make you feel proud?

Week ending 5th May 2023

Portwrinkle

H is our achiever this week. We have been learning about Tangram shapes and he remembered that one of the shapes that make up the Tangram is called a parallelogram. It is great to learn new words!

Downderry

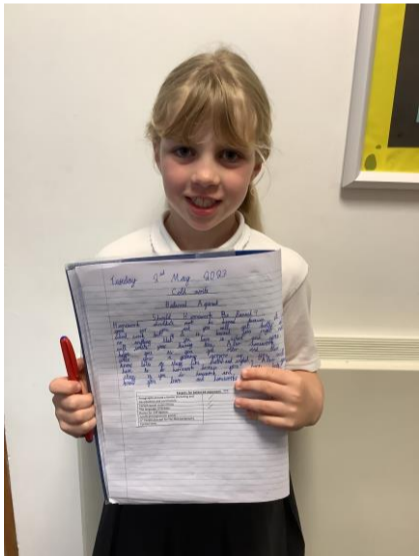

R has settled so well into Downderry class in the short time that he has been here. He has been very brave, has made lots of friends and he always has a lovely smile on his face. He is a wonderful addition to the class. Well done and welcome to Brunel!

Kingsand

S always demonstrates to others how to be a great team player. He offers to help his classmates and the adults everyday – once he had completed his own work! He can explain how to do something to others who might find it tricky, whilst still letting them work it out for themselves. What a star!

Mousehole

H has consistently shown great presentation in all of her work. This week, she received her well-earned pen license. Her books are such great WAGOLLS to the other children. Well done!

Whitsand

C is an excellent mathematician – he needs to believe in himself as much as we believe in him! He scored an excellent quiz score for decimals and is showing off how great he is at problem solving and reasoning in lessons, too!

Talland

O has increasingly demonstrated an impressive attitude to learning of late. He is becoming much more independent and resilient. We are very proud of him.

Looe

For writing a truly calming, peaceful, and serene relaxing story. E has used some amazing, expanded noun phrases and wonderful emotive language. In addition to all this, the presentation of her work is superb! Well done E, what a star!

Pendower

D has had a really focussed this week. He has applied himself to all of the SATs practises, listened to adults and acted on their advice. We hope this continues into next week's SAT tests so that D does himself proud. Well done.

Seaton

For her fantastic SPAG knowledge and hard work. S is a role model to others with her calm manner and mature attitude to learning. She puts full effort in all lessons and this shows in her work. You are a star!
