Theme - Great Leaders from across the world. Last week, as part of our theme 'What is a leader?' we looked at what makes a great leader, what skills do they have etc. You may know some great leaders already. Recently, we have looked at Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and you probably know about Winston Churchill. Further back in history there is Joan of Arc, Julius Caesar and Abraham Lincoln. There are famous leaders from industry, Henry Ford or Isambard Kingdom Brunel. Can people in the worlds of sport or entertainment be great leaders, Beethoven or Sir Alex Ferguson? Our current leader is Boris Johnson, is he better than the German Chancellor, Angela Merkel. And if we are looking at German leaders, does Adolf Hitler count? After last week, you probably have an idea of what a great leader is and why?	Research - IT/History/PSHE Your tasks this week No.1. Imagine you can go back in time and interview them. You can choose what you want to write. You could write your interview in the form of a play script. You could write them a letter, but they will need to write back to give the answers, a report, a newspaper article or? However you choose to present you work, think about both the genre and layout and think carefully about your questions and what your audience wants to know. No.2. Usually when we start a topic, we map what we know and what we want to find out. Compose a list of questions based on our theme, 'Great leaders from around the world', and send them to your teacher. We will use these to develop our topic around your questions.
Remember to make time every day for some exercise. If you're feeling brave and fit, do PE with Joe Wicks each day at 9am! Just make sure you get some fresh air each day if you possibly can!

There is also a range of learning opportunities on BBC Bitesize. Have a look at these lessons online or through your TV.	.	Geography The World	Science Mixing, dissolving and separation	RE What is Hindusim?	Music Rhythm and Percussion

If you do not have access to the internet, you can still access the learning in the grid above. Each Monday there will be the relevant resources you need ready for you to collect from school. So on Monday 27th April, there will be some English worksheets that support the lessons above should you need them along with some Maths resources too.

Please let us know if you have any problems accessing the learning on the grid above by emailing us or contacting school and we will do our best to help.
