

WALT

Adverbs

I know what an adverb is.

I can identify adverbs in a sentence.

I can use adverbs in a sentence.

Verbs and Adverbs

A verb is a doing word.

An adverb is a word that describes how the verb is done.

quickly

loudly

quietly

sadly

Adverbs

The pirate stole the treasure quickly.

The yellow word is an adverb.
It gives us information about how the pirate stole the treasure.

Adverbs

The waves crashed
loudly against the ship.

The yellow word is an adverb.
It gives us information about how the waves crashed against the ship.

Adverbs

The parrot flew happily in the air.

The yellow word is an adverb.
It gives us information about how the parrot flew in the air.

Adverbs

Suddenly the pirate saw a gold coin.

The yellow word is an adverb.
It gives us information about how the pirate saw the gold coin.

Adverbs

The treasure chest slowly sank into the water.

The yellow word is an adverb.
It gives us information about how the treasure chest sank into the water.

Adverbs

Puffy blew the trumpet
loudly.

Can you find the adverb in this sentence?

Adverbs

The pirate crept quietly
on the ship.

Can you find the adverb in this sentence?

Adverbs

The pirate worked hard on the ship.

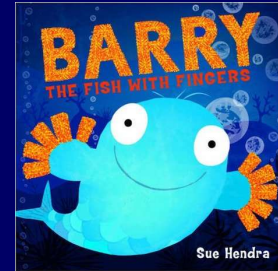

Can you find the adverb in this sentence?

Key Words

Silently the pirate hid the treasure.

Can you find the adverb in this sentence?

Key Words Group work

Green group - Read the text and underline the adverbs.
How many can you find?

Red group - Use the clicker grid to create sentences about the story of the week. Include an adverb in every sentence.

Yellow group - Smartboard activity with the teacher.

Blue group - Complete the fish pattern sheet.

Then work with teacher to find the correct adverb for each sentence.

Orange group - Complete the fish pattern sheet. The work with the teacher to find the correct adverb for each sentence.

WALT

Adverbs.

I know what an adverb is.

I can identify adverbs in a sentence.

I can use adverbs in a sentence.