

Remembering the Facts

Pick one of the sections that you have read.

Draw pictures of the information you have found out in this section. Can you add any labels or words to explain your drawings?

Write a question that you would like to find the answer to in the rest of the book.

Questions end with a question mark and start with words like:

who

where

when

why

what

how

did

can

could
